

Name _____ Date _____

Michigan Biodiversity Blitz

Instructions: Talk to your classmates to see what they know about biodiversity in Michigan. When you find someone who can provide an answer, have him or her write his or her first name (or initials) in the box, along with the answer. Each classmate may sign your paper only once! See how many boxes you can complete.

Find some one who . . .

Can list four things all living things need to survive.	Can name Michigan's state tree.	Can name three kinds of trees that grow in Michigan.
Can name three lakes or rivers close to your school.	Can name Michigan's state bird.	Can name four types of ecosystems found in Michigan.
Has a bird feeder at their house.	Can name three wild animals that can be seen in your area at any time of the year.	Helps take care of a vegetable or flower garden.
Can name three kinds of fish that live in Michigan's waters.	Has visited one of Michigan's State Parks.	Can name three species of wildlife that migrate to and from Michigan every year.
Can list three reasons forests are important to people.	Can list one endangered or threatened animal that lives in Michigan.	Knows someone who has been fishing or hunting.
Can list three reasons the Great Lakes are important to people.	Can name three signs of spring.	Can name one invasive species.